Here at Gomde, Lindholme Hall we are busy preparing for Rinpoche's visit. Volunteers visited this week end and worked on the land clearing unwanted debris and chopping firewood – we enjoyed working and practicing together and despite the weather forecast (or maybe because of it) the weather was wonderful, allowing us to appreciate the beauty of our parkland estate. Today we had a double rainbow.....

We hope to make Lindholme Hall as comfortable and as beautiful for Rinpoche and our visitors in January as possible. There is of course much to be done and anyone who would like to help with all our happy preparations- inside and out- please contact us. Whatever your skill we have something to suit you. If you are unable to visit at this time your support of good wishes and rejoicing at the creation of our new UK Gomde are gratefully received; having well wishes and encouragement makes so much difference.

As you can imagine, with a large estate like Lindholme Hall, there are many basic overheads. We currently have a group of people who contribute on a monthly basis to the up keep of the estate- they are 'The Keepers of the Estate'. The 'Keepers' regularly receive newsletters concerning the management of the household here. We consider their help essential—not only because of the essential practical support but also the shared sense of purpose it represents.

As Rinpoche has said, many drops from a leaking roof soon fill a bucket, so if you would like to become a 'Keeper' no matter how small a regular donation you can afford, please contact us. To make a one-off donation right now, please click on the donate button below.

Concerning our wish to make Rinpoche as comfortable as possible, we have a beautiful antique bed for Rinpoche but unfortunately it has an antique mattress! We would like to purchase a new and very comfortable mattress for Rinpoche – if you would like to help sponsor this personal offering for Rinpoche please let us know.

Emaho!

We are living in very precious times.

We have a beautiful new Gomde and Rinpoche will visit us in 34 days.

May all be auspicious and may all Chökyi Nyima's aspirations for the teachings, beings and all our Gomdes throughout the world, be fulfilled!

With joy and appreciation for our great good fortune

Rangjung Yeshe UK
